NB. It is a requirement of ACPAT membership that full members are responsible for ensuring that they have provision of the appropriate level of Professional and Public Liability Indemnity insurance to practise animal/veterinary physiotherapy. If, you have taken out Cat B insurance, you need to contact your insurance provider to arrange the appropriate cover for Category A and provide evidence of this to the ACPAT Secretary.

I am a Chartered Physiotherapist and an annually subscribing full practising member of the CSP. Please upgrade my membership from Category B to Category A which I understand will take effect from the date this form and cheque are received by the Secretary.
